The announcement was made in the British House of Commons last night that the Government had abandoned the Tithe Rent Charge bill, the Redistrict Education bill, the Landlord's Assistance (Ireland) bill, the Land Commissioners' bill, and other minor measures. The Government will proceed with a Land Allotment bill.

The money market was quiet without material change in the quotations. Sterling bills were steady and unchanged. Investment securities were dull. The New York stock market was weak and lower. Pacific mail gold declined were firmer, though only towards the end of the session, and gained from their lowest. There was a quiet report toward for wheat, and had some to report in the corn crop, but wheat gave way with Wednesday quite and closed lower all the more higher, but 1c more lower, while 1c was lower, corn 1c was higher, oats 1c was higher, rye was steady and barley easier.

Directors of the Union Stock of Lake are discussing the problem of increasing their water supply. Some of the Trustees favor the establishment of a sixty-inch main in connection with the Hyde Park water works. Others favor the sinking of a new Stockton tunnel. The first would cost $500,000, the second somewhat less. Before plan would hardly serve satisfactorily. The Hyde Park works, from which it is proposed to obtain the additional supply, is the near shore. For three months of each year the water that comes through it is said to drink. At Englewood the goods are obliged to obtain their supply for drinking and cooking purposes from the artesian well. It would be an evil under the circumstances to expect from Hyde Park to furnishing the supply of forty-thirty water. As the people will probably have to be consulted before the money for the proposed work is obtained, it is not unlikely that the whole matter will be shunted. The Hospital and control way that Lake has enjoy an abundant supply of water, whenever circulation could be so economical in Chicago. The new work is being provided by Water Inlet and will be in full working order before other water of interest can be obtained for the Lake Trustees. In the meantime the citizens may invite any audience to contract audacious thoughts. Lake could never come to free Englewood north.

At the meeting of the Salisbury Cabinet yesterday it was decided to hold an autumn session of Parliament. This would last as soon as the Irish Land Bill is passed a course will be taken, during which the Cabinet will be reconstructed. The new Government will meet Parliament face to face under fresh vote, in all probability, with a new Lord-Lieutenant and Chief Secretary for Ireland, possibly as Prince of Wales, Lord Hartington will enter the Cabinet, probably as First Lord of the Treasury and as Premier the Right Honorable Lord Randolph Churchill, and possibly Mr. Chamberlain may enter him. If the two latter are not out there is trouble in store for Hartington. If they are admitted they will acquire the old Tories by promising the national Conservative scheme of Mr. Chamberlain. They may even go beyond that, finding the stampeding of Parliament politics will be in their favor in the event of an appeal to the country. In the meantime the Nationalists will have to wait patiently. Some of the old Ministers who are not in the Cabinet will be sent to the House of Lords to get them out of the way. There will be many vacancies for all the seats that were vacant. It will be the policy of the Gladstonians to hold in every constituency. Should they be able to defeat Hartington and the Right Honorable Lord-Lieutenant, the new Government would go to pieces in a month. Chamberlain's defeat in Birmingham would be the political fall of that virile Democrat. Perhaps the first piece they will take counsel with the Home Rulers and submit to their conditions in the Irish Land bill. This would further accelerate matters. Anyway, that Randolph election has left the Tory Ministry in a tossed condition.

THE BOY THAT LEADS PARTIES.

Which are those distinct labor parties in New York, not counting the Socialistic-the Union Labor party, which convened at Rochester last week, the United Labor party, which held its convention in Syracuse yesterday, and the Progressive Labor party, which meets at Rochester Sept. 6? The Labor party does not intend to nominate a State ticket, but will give its support to such candidates of the other parties as will pledge themselves to promote legislation favorable to organized labor. The only one of the parties showing a National organization is the Union Labor, which takes to embrace from the central body at Cincinnati Feb. 22, and is supposed to be made up of Greenbackers, anti-monopolists, land reformers, agricultural organizations, etc. The party has some strength in the rural portions of the West, but in New York City is a completely overshadowed by the United Labor party-the George-Hewitt-McGuire combination. Due is by far the most meaning of the several labor parties, and the chief question of interest is as to its ability to succeed in strength by absorbing those or swamping other party organizations.

The proceedings of the George-Hewitt-McGuire yesterday indicate that no failure was harbored with the Union Labor party in the near future, and that the United Labor party must look for success among the lower strata of the city. The only question common to the two organizations is the Government ownership of railroads, telegraphs, etc. So far the two are exactly in accord, but George insists on abolition the tariff and the taxation of land values, while Hewitt and McGuire are silent on these points. Hewitt and McGuire are in favor of the establishment of labor bureaus, which George opposes. The Union Labor party is in favor of the establishment of the eight-hour system, which the Labor party opposes. The Union Labor party is in favor of the abolition of the contract system, which the Labor party favors
